STATE POLICE

YOUTH WEEK was established in 1970 to increase understanding among the state's youth and its law enforcement. The objective is to give the cadets the chance to see and experience firsthand many areas of law enforcement, which includes leadership, disci-

MISSION:

SPYW wants to prepare the cadets thru moral, intellectual and physical aspects to become future leaders of the commonwealth and instill in them courage, honor, and commitment.

DO THEY LIKE IT?

CADETS WRITE:

"They taught us discipline and to work together as one, so we could achieve our goals. The desire to accomplish and succeed was always there."

"Thank you for letting me have the opportunity and the experience of being able to attend the Camp. It has been a rewarding experience!"

"...It is a short seven days but we learned a lot and learned to work hard and play hard together as squads – and all of use who were part of the team will remember for a long time."

PARENTS WRITE:

"He hasn't stopped talking about it yet. Seldom does he show this much enthusiasm over anything...what a wonderful program it was, and what an impression it made on a 15-year-old-boy."

"He has yet to cease talking and has truly been affected in the most positive way... We're very proud of his new-found maturity and the respect he has for all of you. A job well done!!!"

"He's still a little hoarse from yelling 'Yes Sir', but never hesitates to explain what happened to his voice...This week was an excellent introduction into a military style of behavior. He loved it!"
